

The Dunkirk Historical Museum presents...

That '70s Exhibit

Feather your hair, strap on your earth shoes, and join us in remembering the ups and downs of one of the most exciting and tumultuous decades in the history of Dunkirk, NY.

Special features include the music of Three Dog Night, the film career of H. B. "Toby" Halicki, the Bicentennial parade, the creation of Bicentennial Park in 1976, the Blizzard of '77, the career of Mark Brazill, 1970s fashion, and how locals spent leisure time throughout the decade in Dunkirk.

